Dear Friends:

As you likely learned last week through media outlets, the Diocese of Rockville Centre is seeking bankruptcy protection.

On Monday of this past week, I attended a meeting of Pastors in Rockville Centre, over which presided Bishop John O. Barres, our diocesan bishop. Presentations on the meaning of this bankruptcy were made by the Vicar General, Father Eric Fasano and the Diocesan Administrator, attorney Thomas Renker. It was an enlightening meeting, assuring us that this move is in the long-range best interests of the Church on Long Island.

By way of background, over a year ago, under the leadership of Governor Andrew Cuomo, the state government determined to eliminate the traditional statute of limitations. This allowed accusers to bring forth charges against those they said had abused them with no limitations. This was a radical departure from traditional legal practice. For years, the Church had argued that this put the Church at an unfair disadvantage unless the standard also included teachers in public education, leaders in Scouting organizations, and all other organizations dealing with minors.

For many years, the New York State Senate upheld the doctrine of the Statute of Limitations, but with the takeover of the State of New York by one party government, all restrictions were eliminated. In the case of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, this led to over 200 accusations being brought forward. In many cases these accusations were made against priests who are now long dead. It was simply unfeasible for the diocese to litigate against over two hundred cases without putting the Church on Long Island in serious long-term jeopardy.

To indicate the near impossibility of accurately defending ourselves against the cases which have surfaced because of the elimination of the Statute of Limitations, consider this case, brought forth in another state which had eliminated the statute of limitations: an accuser, eighty five years old, claims that a priest molested him when he was around five years old. The priest in question is, as you might expect, long dead. How does anyone disprove a negative like that without serious legal and financial risk?

My sense, attending the Monday diocesan gathering, was that the Bishop and those leading the Church on Long Island are doing the prudential thing in trying to protect the assets of the people of God. In so doing, they are dealing wisely with a nearly impossible situation brought about by the current ability of anyone, from any time in the past to make accusations that, true or false, are terribly difficult to adjudicate.

May I suggest that we continue our best to be the vibrant and strong parish that we are and have always been, and that we trust our diocesan leadership, in cooperation with our parishes, to do what is best for the long-term health and well-being of the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

Thank you for your consideration.

In the Love of Christ,

Catechist Urgently Needed to teach online via zoom
Level 5 class on Wednesdays 4pm-5:15pm
This class will not run unless a catechist is found.

Books and other learning materials were distributed at the parents’ meetings that were held over the past 3 weeks. Parents who did not attend their parent meeting must pick up their child’s books THIS WEEK. Students cannot participate in their online class without their book!

Level 2 Communion prep students who are attending in-person classes will receive their books on the first day of class.

Wednesday classes begin on October 21
Saturday classes begin on October 24

Level 2 First Reconciliation and First Communion preparation classes will be held in-person. There will be less than 30 people in total in the building during each session so there will be plenty of space for social distancing and for us to take all necessary precautions. We will be holding an online Level 2 class on Saturday mornings 9:30am-10:45am for those students who cannot attend in-person.

Level 8 Confirmation Preparation students will begin online on October 21, and then will return to in-person instruction on January 13.

All other grade levels will be conducted online with a catechist during the regularly scheduled class time. You should have already received a letter in the mail with your child’s class assignment. Before the first day of class, your child’s catechist will be contacting you via phone or email to add your child to their zoom or google meets virtual classroom.

Registration for returning students is closed

We reached out multiple times to all those who have not registered and have concluded that any family who has not responded by registering their children has chosen not to return to our program this year. These families have been inactivated.

Please note: All students who sit out for the year will need to make-up the missed grade level and therefore will fall a year behind their peers. Students who still owe work from the 2019-20 school year will need to submit that work in order to rejoin the program in the future.
WE NEED YOUR HELP!

As Thanksgiving approaches, we ask all to be as generous as possible in contributing to our food pantry. We will be making Thanksgiving Food Baskets for many needy families in our parish. We will be assembling Baskets in the next coming weeks. Last year, through your generosity, we were able to provide Thanksgiving baskets to more than 200 families from within our parish boundary and the immediate surrounding area. We are anticipating a greater demand this Thanksgiving, as the past year has seen a marked increase in families looking to us for assistance.

Below is a shopping list of items we will be using to make up the baskets. We will begin accepting donations now through November 6th. May we ask you to inspect the expiration dates on intended donations? Please bring the items to the Food Pantry no later than Friday, November 6th, since we will be distributing Thanksgiving baskets the week of November 16th. Parish Outreach hours are Monday through Thursday from 10am to 1pm.

Please feel free to donate any or all of the items on the list to complete a basket. Please do not bring any perishable items because we do not have the facilities to store them. Kindly consider a Gift Card in lieu of a turkey. Gift cards would be much appreciated as they provide for perishable items. Thank you for your continued kindness and help to support this effort.

This would be an excellent opportunity for Girl Scout Troops, Boy Scout Troops, and Confirmation Candidates as a Christian Service Project, to participate in this much needed community effort.

It is hard to believe we are in the beautiful season of fall and Thanksgiving is just around the corner! Although it seems a bit early, we have begun to accept food donations in preparation for the Thanksgiving holiday. Because of current circumstances, many of the organizations that donate to our Thanksgiving food drive are unable to do so this year. Please be as generous as your means allow at this time so that we can help make the Thanksgiving holiday a happier one for those less fortunate in our community. Please see our flyer listing the items needed to make up a Thanksgiving bag for our clients. Please feel free to donate any or all of the items listed. We will be accepting donations of Thanksgiving items until November 6. We are successful only because of the love and support of our wonderful parish family. In advance of your generosity, I thank you all once again!

Below is a list of foods that we offer our clients all during the year. These items are always needed. You may drop donations at Outreach, the Rectory and the Church. For your convenience, there are bins in the vestibule of the church. If you feel unsure of how and when you can make a donation, for either the Outreach or the Parish, please call Outreach 516-541-1260 or email leslieoll@aol.com and I will be happy to speak to you. If you are interested in donating gift cards, it is most helpful if they are in smaller denominations ($10, $20 or $25) thereby allowing us to give to more people.

The foods listed in bold print and have  next to them are most needed to help stock our Pantry shelves right now!

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be “islands of mercy in the midst of a sea of indifference.” Everyone in the parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need. The 25th anniversary year of Evangelium vitae gives us a wonderful opportunity to assess, expand, and communicate resources to pregnant moms and families in need. We are inviting parishes, through the support of their bishop and pastor, to join a nationwide effort from March 25, 2020 to March 25, 2021 entitled: “Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service.”

A Message from St. John Paul II

“I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion... The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. Certainly what happened was and remains terribly wrong. But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope... The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. To the same Father and His mercy you can with sure hope entrust your child.” (Evangelium Vitae no. 99, John Paul II)

Daniel Rodriguez, the Brooklyn born, now-retired police officer, helped bring the country an uplifting spirit of promise and hope with his stirring rendition of “God Bless America” after the 2001 World Trade Center terrorist attack.

Formal voice training began early, with Daniel’s first recital in Carnegie Hall at age 16. Singing has been his lifelong passion, however it didn’t always pay the bills. He worked at a series of jobs until joining the NYPD at age 30, where he became known as “The Singing Policeman”.

September 11, 2001, Officer Rodriguez was driving to work when the first plane hit the World Trade Center. Arriving at the site as a first-responder, he witnessed the destruction of both towers, nearly losing his own life. At “Prayer for America” in Yankee Stadium his inspirational voice gave hope and strength to a grieving nation. His music career had turned into a calling.

Daniel’s philanthropic and patriotic efforts have been recognized with numerous honors, such as the USO Lifetime Achievement Award, the DAR Medal of Patriotism and others. Now known as “America’s Beloved Tenor”, he continues to uplift and inspire in performances for his chosen charities, at high profile events, and concert halls around the world.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAS INVITES YOU TO TAKE PART IN

Court Queen of Angels #869, here at St. Ignatius Loyola Parish, is joining with Catholic Daughter Courts throughout New York State for
The Thank You Project—a letter and notecard writing event to acknowledge our active duty men and women in the Military.

Won’t you join us in thanking a serviceman or servicewoman?

All ages are encouraged to participate. Children may write a simple note or draw a picture.

3 WAYS TO PARTICIPATE:

1. Stop by our tables at the priests’ garage after Mass on October 24th or 25th. Write a quick note—we will supply the paper, cards, pens and markers—pens and markers will be sanitized after each use. You may also drop off cards you have already prepared.

2. Drop your cards any time in the box located in the church.

3. Mail or drop off your cards, marked “Catholic Daughters Thank You Project” to the rectory office (St. Ignatius Loyola, 129 Broadway, Hicksville, NY 11801) no later than October 28th.

Please note: cards or letters only—no envelopes needed. We will bundle all of our good wishes and send them to the NYS liaison, who will forward your cards around the country and overseas throughout the year to our active duty military personnel.

SUGGESTIONS AND IMPORTANT GUIDELINES:
Address your card “Dear Friend” or “Dear Service Member”. Be positive! Write a note of encouragement or tell them your hobbies or what life is like in your town. You do not need to sign your full name or provide an address. Please refrain from political statements and inappropriate topics or lengthy religious discussions, but you may certainly say you are praying for them. No glitter or glued items on children’s artwork. Please do not be holiday specific as cards will be sent throughout the year.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION!
